HOW WE MAY USE YOUR INFORMATION

We use your information to provide you with our services, and to improve and extend our services. This may include:

- providing you with information relating to products or services that you requested from us
- sending subscription renewal information
- sending service-related information
- contacting you to give you an opportunity to complete a customer satisfaction survey
- disclosing your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation
- sending promotional material about new products, special offers, or other information we think you may find interesting or useful (this service can be opted out of *)
- Analysis of student performance data for progress, targets, and achievements, and to be able to provide feedback to individual students, their teachers, and parents

* Opting out of our promotional material may additionally mean that you miss important service updates and notifications about special offers and free products.

MONITORING OF COMMUNICATIONS

Subject to applicable laws, we may monitor, record, and store safely any calls, emails, social media messages and other communications in relation to your interactions with us. This is done for a number of reasons including security of accounts, customer service improvements and when we need a record of what may have been discussed in relation to your account.

WHERE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION IS STORED

Login data is stored within our online servers with any identifiable data stored in an encrypted form. We may also store subscription related data, not including login details or performance data on a local server located at our offices.

Email services for CoreSciences are supplied by Microsoft. Any records of email communications are stored on their servers in an encrypted form and are only accessible by authorised members of CoreSciences staff.

Recordings of any telephone conversations may be stored on a local server in our office. These calls are saved as audio files and stored in a secure location where only authorised CoreSciences staff have access.

ONLINE PURCHASES

We process all payment through a third party payment processing service provider, Shopify Inc. This is an industry standard online e-commerce platform that is widely used by service providers to process payments. Shopify Inc store purchase related information on secure servers behind a firewall. Full details relating to Shopify's Privacy Policy and what data they collect and how they use it during the payment process can be found at the following link: <https://www.shopify.com/legal/privacy>

SHARING INFORMATION

CoreSciences does not share personal information with third parties. We may however disclose your personal information if we are required by law to do so or if you are in breach of any of our Terms and Conditions.

USE OF COOKIES

A cookie, also known as a browser cookie, is a text file containing small amounts of information which a server may download to your computer or device when you visit a website or use an app. The purpose of cookies is to let you navigate between different pages on the website efficiently, remembering preferences you have given (e.g. language selection). Cookies are used within the CoreSciences site to track login sessions and to allow for resuming of sessions in the event of a loss of connectivity between the user and the server. We may also use them to measure the number of site visits and the most popular pages users visit. The cookies that CoreSciences uses do not directly collect personal information such as name, address, email address, however they may be linked to your CoreSciences login for auditing purposes.

ANONYMOUS AGGREGATION OF DATA

Data may at any time be converted into statistical or aggregated data that cannot be used to identify individuals. This data will be used for analysis of service performance, troubleshooting and service improvement purposes.

UPDATING THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We may from time to time modify and update our privacy policy to comply with the latest legislation. The up-to-date copy of this policy can be found on this web page. If you have any questions in relation to this privacy policy please contact us.

UPDATING YOUR DETAILS

If any of the information that you have provided to CoreSciences changes, please contact us.
